

BOOK A CWGC TALK

We offer a range of highly engaging and informative talks to enable cadets to discover more about the work of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission. These talks will enable you to start your project, delivered at a time and place to suit you.

You can book a CWGC speaker to visit your unit. During the current situation we are also offering virtual talks. We can set up virtual talks for a number of units at the same time.

We offer the following talks;

- We are CWGC - an introduction to the history and work of the CWGC

This talk will also introduce the cadets to the research project.

We can also deliver the following subjects;

- The Origins and History of the CWGC
- Gardening the World – the Horticulture of the CWGC
- CWGC Architecture and its Conservation
- Research and records using the CWGC Archives

The Kantor Speakers Programme is supported through funding from the Kantor Foundation to the Commonwealth War Graves Foundation (CWGF). Our talks are free but we ask for donations from groups for our charity The Commonwealth War Graves Foundation (CWGF) if they feel able to support our work. Further information is available about the CWGF here
