

In Memory Of

Captain

ERIC LOUIS GIBLIN

Royal Army Medical Corps who died on 28 September 1915

Son of Lewis Vincent and Elizabeth Giblin. Born in Tasmania. Educated at Hutchins School, Hobart, Tasmania. Engaged on missionary and research work (linguistic) for some years in British New Guinea (Papua). Entered Melbourne University and later, Sydney University as a medical student. Qualified, and intending to specialise as a children's doctor, came to England. Entered Queen's Hospital for Children, Bethnal Green. A few days before the war began, completed six month's service as Assistant House Surgeon. Volunteered for foreign service on the Sunday before the declaration of war.

THE HUMAN-HEARTED MAN WE LOVED

Remembered with Honour

HOUCHIN COMMUNAL CEMETERY

7A

|||||
COMMONWEALTH
WAR GRAVES
|||||

COMMEMORATED IN PERPETUITY BY THE COMMONWEALTH
WAR GRAVES COMMISSION